Topics Discussed:

1. Front-end Development
2. Final Activity & State Diagrams
3. Implementation of database

Decisions Made:

1. We discussed and decided to refactor all Activity Diagrams, as well as add Swimlane types. Marilena and Denajd were responsible for it. Based on Use Cases and Activity diagrams, we then recreated State diagrams with the specified changes. Sequence & Collaboration diagrams needed further implementation, so Denada took over the rest of the work.
2. WebApp group dealt with the database implementation. We referred to the ERD that we had previously designed, and decided to use data entities for database implementation, since it will be static.
3. MobileApp Group also started to implement the database. We thought it would be better to use separate databases during implementation period, since we may need to reboot it for updating and the other group's work would be unnecessarily affected.

Tasks Assigned:

1. Continuing with code implementation
